FOLLOW THESE 10 STEPS TO LEARN HOW

If you're traveling for 1-4 weeks, this packing guide is for you. Preparing your vacation packing list is no longer a challenge with these tips! Click on each of the below items to learn more about each one.

How Do I Pack For Vacation?

1

If you're traveling for one to two weeks, pack one to two weeks worth of clothing. If you're traveling from three to four weeks, pack one week's work of clothing. Why? You'll just do laundry once a week!

It's true. No matter the length of your trip you can pack for one week and have everything you need.

To master the art of packing light, you'll need to use this key concept to help you pack strategically, efficiently, and even stylishly: a capsule travel wardrobe.

Take a look at TFG's Signature Packing Lists for four unique travel wardrobe suggestions and if you need more help understanding how to mix and match, colors, styling, and essential clothing items, read Capsule Wardrobe Essentials which will introduce you to the basics.
